Investors have already made an astonishing start to 2021, sending the stock market to its all-time high again, and now they seem ready to wait and see what the near future brings. Red-hot tech stocks have been leading the market for some time now, so it's no surprise to see the Dow processing its edges so quickly. (NYSE: FSLY) was among the major winners in the market on Thursday, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency awarded the $1.500 a.m. Sinclair Oil Corporation waived the exemption of refineries in Wyoming from biofuel mixing requirements for 2019, making it the only company exempt for that year until now, the EPA has announced two 2019 waivers to refineries on Tuesday night, hours before the departure of President Donald Trump's administration. Trump, however, did not identify the recipients, both waivers to the 85,000-day-a-day Sinclair Wyoming refinery and the 30,000 bpd Sinclair Casper refinery, which is in Wyoming, the source said, asking not to be named to discuss the matter.
